7. The Office of Training and Education hosted a meeting of 60 representatives from 20 government agencies and several academic organizations to exchange information on computer-based language testing and teaching, materials development, and research. The State Department, CIA and the Defense Language Institute are conducting major reviews of Russian language programs and have agreed to pool resources to avoid duplication.

8. The Federal Women's Program sponsored a pilot running of "Culture, Power and Gender Dynamics" for 20 Agency managers representing all directorates. The course will replace both the Professional Men's Course and the Women's Executive Leadership Development Course and will emphasize how culture impacts on the individual and group successes of men and women in the Agency.
